

THE CAMP IS IN FORM OF A FAN

Fort Riley Maneuvers To Be Conducted in a Novel Formation This Year.

REVIEW GROUND

At Handle of the Fan Officers Will Be Located, with Soldiers on the Ribs.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Junction City, Kas., Sept. 3.—For the maneuvers at Fort Riley the most unique camp in the history of warfare, mimic or real, is being planned. The camp will be in the form of a monstrous fan. The troops will be encamped in their regular formation on the ribs. At the end of the imaginary handle will be the headquarters of the commanding officers. Between this point and the positions of the various organizations will be sufficient space to hold a review of the entire fourteen thousand troops that will be assembled.

KING DISPROVES RACE SUICIDE

Washington, Sept. 3.—Chief Statistician King of the census office ridicules the race-suicide scare that has been recently agitated. He says that before long this country will be confronted with the problem of what to do with the people. To prove his assertion Mr. King quotes from the census returns of 1900. In that year the enumerators found that 2,019,132 children were born and a record of 1,039,094 deaths, or an excess of birth of 1,010,048. This large excess of birth was revealed despite the fact that deaths are recorded with much more accuracy than the births. It is admitted that the percentage of births not recorded is surprisingly large. The total population within the boundaries of the United States in 1890 was 62,947,714, and the natural increase in the decade following due to excess of births over deaths was 12,515,351. The average annual excess of births was 17.7 for every 1,000 of the mean population. It is estimated that the death rate of the country for the census year of 1900 was approximately 16.3 for every 1,000 in 1890, as estimated by the statistician of the eleventh census, and taking the mean of these, or average annual death rate for the decade, there must necessarily have been an average annual birth rate of 25.1 for every 1,000 of the mean population actually enumerated. Statistician King says the average annual rate of increase by excess of births in the United States for native white parents was 19.5 to the 1,000 of population, while it was 36.5 to the 1,000 for those born of foreign parents.

CAPTAIN OF GUNBOAT COOLLY FACES DANGER

Prompt Action Averts Tragedy on East River When Big Steamer Rams War Craft. New York, Sept. 3.—Prompt action alone on the part of the captain and crew of the United States gunboat Scorpion averted a tragedy in East river. The war vessel and the Metropolitan line steamer Whitney collided with such terrific force that it seemed as if the Scorpion must founder. Helpless below the Scorpion's decks were sick and delirious men being conveyed to the New York naval hospital from the ships of the North Atlantic squadron. With a shock that almost shook the ventilators off the Scorpion the heavy steamer crashed into its port side, thirty feet from the bow, smashing the port rail for nearly twenty feet, twisting the steel plates, and tearing a hole in the side extending from the deck to below the water line, nearly eight feet. Over went the Scorpion, taking the water almost to its rail. Then as the vessel righted there was another collision, and the little war craft with its cargo of sick men was sinking. With the bow of the ship going lower and lower it began a race until the navy yard in Whitney basin was reached, where the vessel received assistance. According to naval officers the escape of the Scorpion was "one chance in a thousand." As passengers the Scorpion bore Rear Admiral Barker, commanding the North Atlantic squadron; Pay Director Littlefield, U. S. N.; Lieut. Commander Bousch, with a crew of ninety-nine men. On board the Whitney were a few passengers and it was heavily laden with freight. Capt. Joseph Baker, the commander of the Whitney, immediately headed his boat back to the pier after the collision with slight injuries.

TWO MILTON YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED

(Special To The Gazette.) Milton, Wis., Sept. 3.—A pretty church wedding took place yesterday at high noon in the Seventh Day Baptist church, where Miss Leo Ninette Coon of this place and P. Fred Whitford of Nile, N. Y., were united in marriage in the presence of several hundred relatives and invited guests. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Platts. The bridegroom was attended by D. F. and F. Whitford of Nile, N. Y., brothers of the groom, and the bride by the Misses Alice Clarke and Ella E. Babcock. Classmates of Mr. Whitford were ushers, and the church was handsomely decorated in honor of the bride, who has been the choir leader. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on High street. A dainty wedding lunch was served. Mr. Whitford was graduated from Milton college in the class of 1902. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coon and is a pleasing vocalist. After a brief stay in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Whitford will make their future home at Williams Bay, where Mr. Whitford is under engagement as principal of the public schools.

WILL NOT ANSWER TO MANSLAUGHTER

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Newark, N. J., Sept. 3.—Justice Gummere this morning granted the motion of the defense in the case of A. Jassett, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, and eleven other wealthy men, all of whom are directors of the North Jersey Street railway, to dismiss the indictments against them. Manslaughter in connection with the death of nine school children who were killed in collision between a street car and a Lackawanna train was charged.

TROLLEY CAR GETS OUT OF CONTROL

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.) Cincinnati, Sept. 3.—A trolley car dashed down a 45 degree incline on Clifton avenue this morning and jumped the track at a curve, crashing into a wagon. The occupants of the wagon and several on the car were hurt, one probably fatally. The brake failed to work.

STATE NOTES

Arthur Sherman, the 16 year old slayer of H. C. Gilbert, has been bound over for trial in Superior. Charles R. Sendelbach, aged 75 years, a retired farmer of Fennimore, committed suicide by hanging himself. A large number of Kenosha county farmers have sold their farms and removed to land in the northern part of the state. The Tomah police are looking for a young man named Dick Donovan, who is wanted on a charge of assaulting an officer. Howard Larkin, 14 years of age, of Whitewater, was accidentally shot by Fred Whitford, aged 13, through the fleshy part of the leg. The potato crop in Sauk county will average only about half a normal yield, the continuous rain for two weeks without any sunshine causing the potatoes to rot. While temporarily insane, Christ Christoffer of Stoughton attempted to commit suicide in the county jail at Madison by cutting his throat with a table knife. The residents of Baraboo and the surrounding townships have started a good road movement, over $6,000 having been raised by private subscription for the purpose. Charles, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ezelke of Wausau, was bitten by a dog which was afflicted with hydrophobia. The lad's left wrist was badly lacerated. Twenty-two members of the Physicians' Business association of Racine last night decided to prosecute quack doctors who are doing business in that city contrary to law. The facts will be placed in the district attorney's hands tomorrow, with instructions to prosecute. George Le Fay, whom popular opinion connected with the murder of Willie Ernst at Sioux River two weeks ago, has accounted fully for his whereabouts on the night of the murder, and has been released. The annual conference of the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Episcopal church is being held in Racine. The golden jubilee of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church will be celebrated Friday evening. Milton E. Keats, who was for six years superintendent of schools for Fond du Lac county, and now city superintendent, has been elected principal of the Anglo high school and city superintendent. While crossing the trestle work over Lake Monona, Madison, Benjamin Fuller, colored, was struck by a passenger train on the North-Western road, and so severely injured that he may die. The Rosendale Creamery company of Fond du Lac is in the hands of the sheriff on a writ of attachment in favor of James H. Beltrac of Oakfield, who has a claim of about $300 for cream furnished to the company. Sugar beet raising in Racine county by the Menominee Falls Sugar Beet company this year has resulted in a loss estimated at $1,500, owing to weeds, cold weather, and heavy rains, and it is not expected that the company's lease will be renewed.

RELANCE AND SHAMROCK START ON RACE IN INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Best Start of the Week Made Today in the Race for America's Cup—No Wind Early This Morning, But Freshened Gradually.

Highlands, N. J., Sept. 3.—After waiting until almost the very last minute granted by the rules the Reliance and the Shamrock started today in a race that promised to be another fluke. The racers went to the starting line at the usual hour, but the wind was only blowing two knots an hour. As the day wore on the wind increased, but very slowly. Shortly before, however, it had attained a velocity of about six knots an hour and yachts hurriedly were sent away fifteen miles to windward. A haze hung over the boats when the starting gun was fired. The official time of the start was: Reliance, 1:01:56; Shamrock, 1:02:00. The wind freshened although a bit unsteadily. The Reliance continued to draw away from the Shamrock and a half hour after the start was nearly an eighth of a mile in the lead. She managed to sail not only to windward but fore-reached the Englishman. As in the previous races she had her head higher and slipped along faster than the challenger. At two the wind was blowing eight knots, and if it holds up the yachts should finish by 5:30, the time limit. 3:30 p. m.—A message just received that Reliance wins the last race of the cup series.

EXPECT TO USE PEAT FOR COAL

BELOIT PEOPLE SEE SOLUTION OF FUEL PROBLEM.

PEAT BEDS NEAR LINE CITY

Town of Newark Has Large Area Filled with Combustible Material—Company May Be Started.

(Special To The Gazette.) Beloit, Wis.—That Beloit people will be burning home manufactured peat in their stoves and furnaces within a year if not an impossibility by any means. Indeed it may be a probability, if not almost a certainty. Plans are said to be on foot here to form a stock company for the manufacture of this important article of fuel as is being done successfully in other parts of the state. John McGavock and John Line are said to be among those who are interested in the project. Peat Near Line City. It has been known for some time that there were peat beds in the vicinity of Beloit, but it is only recently that the idea has been suggested to develop these beds and make them profitable. J. A. Mathews of the town of Newark has forty acres of land that is underlaid with peat, and the McGavock farm 3 1/4 miles above Afton has a large quantity of the fuel upon it. There are also other beds of the substance within a short distance of the city that local capital could get the manufacture of. Machine For Making Peat Coal. What started the local men to thinking that the industry could be made profitable here was the fact that Thorsby & Sanner of this city, are now making a machine for the manufacture of peat. This machine is to be used at Tomah where the business is to be entered upon extensively. The machine will be ready for shipment about the 2nd or 3rd of September. Two months have been consumed in making it, although a part of this time was used in waiting for material.

UP TO BULGARIA NOW

Must Answer Quickly or Advances Will Be Declared Off at Once.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Berlin, Sept. 3.—The Lokal Anzeiger states that Turkey addressed an ultimatum to Bulgaria making various demands, the fulfillment of which expires tonight. If the ultimatum is rejected Turkey will invade Bulgaria with an army tomorrow. The paper says the German foreign office regards the dispatch as altogether too alarmist. It states that it has no information in corroboration.

TALKS ON FREIGHT AT MADISON TODAY

(Special To The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., Sept. 3.—Gov. La Follette talked entirely on freight rates in his speech at the Dane county fair today, making no reference to the charges of bribery in the last legislature. The governor presented a mass of figures to show that Wisconsin shippers are discriminated against by the railroads, the only new feature being local application by comparing the rates from Madison to Milwaukee with the rates from Illinois towns to Chicago for the same distance. While the governor was speaking a stalwart circular was industriously circulated giving criticisms of the governor by the State Journal and the Oshkosh Northwestern.

GRIDIRON PLANS FOR LINE CITY

Beloit, Wis., Sept. 3.—Coach "Jack" Hollister will come to town next week and then the athletic work at Beloit college will begin in earnest for the season. Hollister has had a group of his boys with him down in Rutland, Vt., this year and they have ended the season there and the coach will arrive in Beloit in a few days. Football practice will begin here just as soon as enough men appear and there will be no intermission in the work until after Thanksgiving dinner is eaten. Beloit's prospects this season are said to be brighter than in the last two years as some good men are pledged to Beloit and they will strengthen the squad where most needed. The weight that was so much needed last year will probably be gained by the entrance of one or two "heavies" and the team will be well balanced. The new open style of play as required by the new rules will likely benefit Beloit which always has a light, fast team and one which is kept in such admirable condition that it tells against her adversaries. Several of the old men who were not in school in 1902 may return this year and it will add much to the calibre of the eleven.

CALLS STORY AN AMERICAN TRICK

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.) Berlin, Sept. 3.—A local newspaper says today that the false report of the attempted assassination of Magelsen was a trick designed to enable America to interfere in European affairs. The article concludes with a scurrilous attack on the Americans and the American navy. It declares the officers and men of the European squadron a disgrace to themselves by their riotous conduct at every port they visit.

ROBS MOTHER OF LARGE SUM

Baltimore Clubman De-camps, Leaving Shortage of $560,000—Father's Estate Squandered.

SAFE FOUND EMPTY

"Willie" Tucker Is Gone—Women Figure in His Escapades—One Brought Suit.

Baltimore, Sept. 3.—William T. Tucker, a prominent clubman, familiarly known as "Willie" Tucker, has disappeared and his father's estate, of which he was co-trustee with his mother, has been found to be short about $560,000. Mrs. Tucker was abroad with one of her daughters when other members of the family made discoveries which resulted in a hasty cable message to Mrs. Tucker to return. Their discoveries include escapades in which figure two women, one of whom went to Central America with Tucker, returning later. The other claims to have been jilted by him and seeks redress in a suit for damages. Finds Securities Gone. Upon the arrival of Mrs. Tucker in Baltimore an investigation of the contents of the safe deposit box in which the securities of her husband's estate and her own were kept was made. Then the startling revelation came that there was a shortage amounting to $560,000 and that of all the property existing when given over to the care of William T. Tucker there was only $93,000 left. Tucker, who is about 35 years of age, is said to have speculated extensively in stocks. He was under no bond and there is no likelihood of recovering any of the losses to the estate. There is some possibility of suit against a brokerage house which represented Tucker in the sale of securities belonging to the estate, but no proceedings against the young man are expected. Leaves Confession. Tucker, it is understood, left a written confession. It is also said that he told the woman, who went with him to Central America, when they arrived there that he was short in his accounts with the estate and this caused her to return to Baltimore. Information of Tucker's whereabouts was received by the family through this source. Mr. Tucker was recently made the defendant in a suit brought by Miss Sarah G. Morris, who demanded $41,000 damages. Of this amount she declared that $2,400 has been lent by her to Mr. Tucker. She asked $25,000 for breach of promise and $10,000 for alleged assault. To recover the $2,400 suit was brought for $6,000. Mr. Tucker's father was Wesley A. Tucker of Tucker, Smith & Co. The Tucker estate was worth about $650,000. Mrs. Wesley A. Tucker lives at 809 St. Paul street, but spent the summer in Europe. "Willie" Tucker disappeared from Baltimore about six weeks ago. The rumor most accepted is that he sailed on a fruit boat for Jamaica, but it is thought he went on to Central America.

NOVINGER MINERS IMPERIL THE UNION

Missouri Operators Threaten to Close Down Completely Unless Men Return Pending a Conference.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 3.—All the 8,000 coal miners in Missouri may become involved unless the 600 men in the Novinger district return to work promptly. They went out against the orders of President John Mitchell and in violation of the Chicago conference, and the operators may refuse to enter the conference scheduled to be held here on Sept. 10. If the operators should decline to confer further, it is predicted it will result in the closing of all the mines in the state. Judge John C. Tarsney, owner of one of the idle mines in the Novinger district, is quoted as saying: "All the mines of the district will be running in a few days or none of them will be. The miners will find that they are dealing with an entity now and not with individual operators. President Mitchell is acting in good faith, undoubtedly, and now it is only a question of his power in the affected districts."

James Mooney, the local leader, who is responsible for the present strike, incited the miners to quit work in order, it is said, to show his defiance of President Mitchell, whom he has previously opposed.

MACHINE COMPANY PICNIC POSTPONED

Janesville Machine Company Will Go to Ho-No-Ne-Gah Park One Week from Saturday.

The picnic for the employees of the Janesville Machine company which was postponed a week from last Saturday has again been held over, and the date now set is Saturday, September 12th, two weeks later than was originally planned. The cause of the second postponement was because Labor day will be celebrated on Monday, September 7th, by the company by closing the works on that day, and if the picnic were to be held next Saturday it would mean that the shops would be closed for three consecutive days. Continued pleasant weather is hoped for and expected by that time and it is not thought that the disappointment of last Saturday will be repeated on the day now chosen for the festivities.

C. V. HIBBARD TELLS OF VISIT TO CHINESE SCHOOLS IN JAPAN

Tokio by Light of Bicycle Lamp—The Students Appear
Very Much Unlike San Francisco Laundrymen—
Good Athletes with Great Swimming Power.

One of C. V. Hibbard's recent letters contains a description of a visit to a Chinese school in Japan. The fact that the Japanese are doing this educational missionary work will be news to many people who are of the opinion that only the most antagonistic relations exist between these two nations. The letter, which follows, will also have a special interest for friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard because it was Mr. Hibbard's original plan to go to the interior of China. The serious objection of relatives led to the abandonment of this plan and Mr. Hibbard's assignment to the work at Tokio.

Tokio is another city by the light of a bicycle lamp. The bright light on the path serves only to accentuate the shadows and deepen the mystery of the surrounding darkness. Streets that are well known by day seem quite strange. All this was the more true last night when Fisher took me to a part of the city where I had never been before.

After twenty minutes slipping along quietly in the dark, the lamps flashed suddenly on the black water of a river straight ahead. A sharp turn to the left and just before us loomed a large dormitory all alight and as busy as an ant hill. Here were 200 Chinese students under one roof. In the neighboring dormitories were several hundred more.

"At one end of the dormitories where we stopped to enquire for a Japanese friend an Oriental head was pushed against the bars of the window and in response to Fisher's polite Japanese came a rather hesitating, 'Don't speak English!' It seemed to be a huge joke that a Japanese should have the presumption to pretend that he understood English better than his native tongue but when a moment later the door was opened and a light showed a group of Chinese students there I understood. A question answered by the Japanese maid soon put us on our way and we found our friend without further trouble.

"This young man is one of a rather remarkable family. The father is a teacher of fencing. Two of the boys speak Japanese and Chinese and have a fairly good knowledge of English."

FATHER HUGHSON WILL RETURN TO TALK IN EPISCOPAL CHURCHES

Priest of Order of the Holy Cross Will Officiate at Christ and Trinity Churches—Annual Meeting of Christ Church To Be Held Tuesday.

Father Hughson, O. H. C., will officiate at Trinity church on Sunday morning, and at Christ church in the evening. Because of his presence the services at Christ church will be changed as follows:

Celebration of Holy Communion, 8:00 a. m.; Morning Prayer, 9:45 a. m.; Sunday School, 12:00 m.; Evening Prayer, 5:00 p. m.; Preaching by Rev. Father Hughson, 7:30 p. m.

The public will undoubtedly eagerly embrace the opportunity of hearing Father Hughson once more. His addresses at the time of the mission held in this city last spring were listened to with the greatest of interest.

Christ Church Parish will hold its annual meeting on Tuesday evening, the meeting being called to order at seven-thirty o'clock. As this is one of the most important gatherings of the year, it is expected that the attendance will be general.

After a vacation the regular sessions of the Sunday school will be resumed at Christ church next Sunday.

"BIG BILL" IS SERIOUSLY ILL

E. S. Merrill, Beloit Athlete, Is in Dangerous Condition from Blood Poisoning.

Edward S. Merrill of Colorado Springs, Col., formerly physical director of Lawrence university, is suffering with blood poisoning resulting from scratching a scab on his arm. He is in a serious condition.

Edward Merrill received as much prominence in western college athletics as any other athlete, both because of his ability and the fact that he first became known as a baseball and football player of Beloit college. In 1901 he first attracted attention in track athletics and here became famous throughout the west. In the west in the conference meet of that year he furnished the surprise of the day by defeating William Maloney of Chicago in the 440 and setting a new mark for the west with 49 4-5. He also set a new mark in the 220-yard dash of 22 3-5, won second in the 100-yard dash and second in the shot put, winning a larger number of points than any other athlete entered. After leaving college, Merrill coached the Lawrence university teams and last summer played with the Rockford team of the Three I league until released. Merrill was in the city on Monday just before starting for Colorado.

GETS MONEY FROM NEGROES

Are Promised Pensions If They Will Help Him Pass a Bill.

Thomasville, Ga., Sept. 3.—S. P. Mitchell, a negro, president of the National Industrial council, has been held under a $100 bond to the Superior court charged with swindling negroes by promising them pensions under the proposed Hanna bill. Mitchell, it is alleged, represented himself to be an agent for Senator Hanna and guaranteed a pension if enough were paid him to take the necessary preliminary steps. It is said he has collected in the aggregate a considerable sum of money.

WILL ADDRESS THE HIBERNIANS

M. G. Rohan Will Speak at the Meeting on September 13, When Initiation Will Occur.

September 13th is the date set for the next initiation into the local society of Hibernians. This is the time of the regular meeting and it is expected that two prospective members will be taken into the order. A member of the Milwaukee chapter, M. G. Rohan, has been asked to attend and take part and he will address the society. Mr. Rohan is a speaker and lecturer who is well known in fraternal circles and his address will be of interest to every member of the lodge.

DISBANDMENT IS POSSIBLE THING

IS TALK OF DISSOLVING SONS OF VETERANS.

ORDER MAY BE SHORT LIVED

Meeting Tonight Will Probably Decide
Fate of Organization
Founded a Year Ago.

It is rumored that the Janesville branch of the Sons of Veterans, will disband on account of the lack of interest shown by the members. The next meeting which will be held this evening will decide whether the organization will continue as a branch of the regular state organization or be dissolved after a brief existence of nearly a year.

A Year Old.
A little later than the present time last year the local society was organized as a part of the state society, with much pomp and ceremony and under auspicious circumstances. Much enthusiasm was shown and there was prospect of a long and successful life for the order.

Twenty-four Members.
The membership at the present time numbers twenty-four, but only about six of the total are said to have been taking an active interest in the progress of the order, and the opinion is gaining ground that a disbandment will be the next thing in order. This will be decided definitely in the near future.

WILLING TO SELL COUNTERFEIT COIN

Green goods men are again "seeking suckers" in this vicinity. Within the last ten days several letters have been received by local business men offering them brilliant opportunities an acceptance of which as stated in the letters, will make them "independently wealthy."

A portion of one of the letters received follows:
"Your name was sent to me by my son (who is my travelling representative) as a shrewd, reliable, and trustworthy man to co-operate with in your vicinity, and I therefore take the liberty of proposing a scheme to you that ninety-nine out of a hundred up-to-date men would gladly grasp if they could personally convince themselves of the absolute safety of my offer."
"My proposition to you in plain terms is this: Would you be willing to co-operate with me in the disposal of my goods providing that I prove to you beyond all doubt, that my work is an exact duplication of the originals and that it cannot be told from the genuine, even by experts. The almost impossible chance of detection would occur only in case you should attempt to deposit in a bank one of the government notes and one of mine of the same denomination, check-letter and number, at the same time."
"If for any reason you decide not to co-operate with me, I trust as an honorable man, you will honor the protection that the word 'confidential' ensures to all communications, burn this and let the matter drop."

TUBERS MAY GO UP IN PRICE QUICKLY

Potatoes at a $1 a bushel.
This is the possibility—practically the certainty—facing housekeepers the coming fall and winter. It is due to the long season of rain that has been experienced throughout Wisconsin the past three weeks. The finishing touch to the potato crop has been given by the rainfall the past week, during which the ground has been soaked by a precipitation of over two and a half inches.

The rain has rotted the growing tubers to such an extent that buyers who travel through the potato belt declare the yield this fall in Wisconsin will not exceed half a crop, although the acreage has been materially increased over last year.

DISBANDMENT IS POSSIBLE THING

IS TALK OF DISSOLVING SONS OF VETERANS.

ORDER MAY BE SHORT LIVED

Meeting Tonight Will Probably Decide
Fate of Organization
Founded a Year Ago.

It is rumored that the Janesville branch of the Sons of Veterans, will disband on account of the lack of interest shown by the members. The next meeting which will be held this evening will decide whether the organization will continue as a branch of the regular state organization or be dissolved after a brief existence of nearly a year.

A Year Old.
A little later than the present time last year the local society was organized as a part of the state society, with much pomp and ceremony and under auspicious circumstances. Much enthusiasm was shown and there was prospect of a long and successful life for the order.

Twenty-four Members.
The membership at the present time numbers twenty-four, but only about six of the total are said to have been taking an active interest in the progress of the order, and the opinion is gaining ground that a disbandment will be the next thing in order. This will be decided definitely in the near future.

WILLING TO SELL COUNTERFEIT COIN

Green goods men are again "seeking suckers" in this vicinity. Within the last ten days several letters have been received by local business men offering them brilliant opportunities an acceptance of which as stated in the letters, will make them "independently wealthy."

A portion of one of the letters received follows:
"Your name was sent to me by my son (who is my travelling representative) as a shrewd, reliable, and trustworthy man to co-operate with in your vicinity, and I therefore take the liberty of proposing a scheme to you that ninety-nine out of a hundred up-to-date men would gladly grasp if they could personally convince themselves of the absolute safety of my offer."

"My proposition to you in plain terms is this: Would you be willing to co-operate with me in the disposal of my goods providing that I prove to you beyond all doubt, that my work is an exact duplication of the originals and that it cannot be told from the genuine, even by experts. The almost impossible chance of detection would occur only in case you should attempt to deposit in a bank one of the government notes and one of mine of the same denomination, check-letter and number, at the same time."

"If for any reason you decide not to co-operate with me, I trust as an honorable man, you will honor the protection that the word 'confidential' ensures to all communications, burn this and let the matter drop."

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, Sept. 3, 1863.—The state board of education, now in session at Madison, has adopted a resolution classifying counties according to the latest valuation of lands made by the several counties. Eight classes are adopted. Milwaukee is the first, value of land being $21 and the extreme northern counties the eighth value of land $2. Rock is placed in the second class, along with Kenosha, Racine, Walworth and Waukesha, land valued at $15. A committee was appointed of one from each of the eight districts, to perfect and report a system of classification, upon the above basis. Senator Lawrence was appointed for the second district.

Col. W. P. Lyon, of the 13th regiment was in town on Thursday. His regiment is at Columbia, Tenn., to which place letters should be addressed.

Col. Chas. H. Larrabee of the 24th regiment has resigned, and Col. Robbins is reported to have resigned on account of ill health.

One of the richest treats enjoyed by the citizens of this thriving village for a long time past was afforded last night at the court room by S. M. Hewlett. He is not only a first-class lecturer, but he is a first-rate comedian. His argument is unanswerable, and his imitations inimitable. He tells a story or anecdote better than Gough, but is probably below him in descriptive talent. He may not make as deep an impression upon the audience, but he certainly can make them laugh more and can hold an audience as well as any man I ever heard. He kept us for two hours and a quarter last night, and the subscriber occupied a seat about ten inches high without a back, yet never tired. Enough said. PEGGED BOOTS.

CALENDAR AT MYERS GRAND

Sept. 14—"Sky Farm."
Sept. 16—"At Cripple Creek."
Sept. 21—"Walker Whiteside in 'We Are King.'"
Sept. 24—"Quincy Adams Sawyer."

Arrangements have been completed whereby "Sky Farm", the phenomenal success of last season will play an engagement at the Myers Grand. The same spectacular production will again be used while the east will be greatly augmented. This delightful rural drama has played long engagements in both New York and Boston to capacity business and judging from the receipts during its brief run in Chicago, it is safe to say that it could have remained there indefinitely. Joseph R. Grismer, whose elaboration of the everlasting "Way Down East" made it one of the greatest successes known to the American stage, is handling "Sky Farm", while the tour is under the personal direction of S. T. King.

"All the world loves a fighter" some one has said and because of this fact including as it does, women and children who rarely have a chance to witness a real fight, Manager Myers of the Grand, has booked the Root-Gardner polycycle pictures, of the famous light heavy-weight championship battle. Coupled with these pictures, which are vivid and realistic from going to knock out, and a greater photographic marvel than the Corbett-Fitzsimmons veriscope of the Carson City fight, and a complete vaudeville bill of the very best talent and Jack Root the famous light heavy weight who will be seen in an exhibition of scientific bag punching.

This attraction will appear at the Myers for one night only, Monday, Sept. 7th.

Will Entertain R. N. A.: The Shoppers Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, are hostesses today, when the members of the Afton society have gone to Shoppers to partake of their hospitality. A number from this city are present.

Ladies' Aid Society to Meet: The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold its first regular meeting with a social hour on September 11th. Among those to whom a cordial invitation to attend has been extended are all the ladies of the church and congregation.

Many Lights Were Out: Some good records have been established of late in the number of city lights out, but last month deserves to rank among the best. The report of the city light inspector shows that 100 lights were out during the month of August.

House Party at Kegonsa: Misses Charlotte Madison, Olive Trambille, Helen Melsner, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Whaley, and Messrs. George Williams, J. D. Hall and Charles Caniff, have returned from a pleasant seven days' outing at Lake Kegonsa.

Will Go to Stoughton: The degree teams of the Rock River campment, No. 3, of the I. O. O. F., will institute a new encampment at Stoughton next Wednesday night. Many of the grand officers from various sections of the state will be in attendance. The Janesville delegation will leave on the 4:40 p. m. train. Thirty or more expect to go.

Crusher Plant Awakening: The city crusher plant is beginning to look around and take notice. Its excuse for coming into the public eye at the present time is the allegation that its smoke stack is in need of a coat of paint. The coat of paint will be applied at an early date, at a cost not to exceed $5.50.

Will Try Once More: Bass Creek players are determined to retrieve their defeat of last Sunday, and will make the attempt against the same team, the Clinton Maroons, at the same park, York's next Sunday. Both teams will play their strongest aggregation, and prophecies are that the match will be red hot. The amount of the money on the match is not slight.

Want Two Flagmen: If an ordinance which is to come before the common council for action at a future meeting meets with the approbation of that body the Milwaukee and North-Western roads will be obliged to establish separate watchmen for the Five Points crossing. The author of the ordinance held that one watchman could not satisfactorily protect passersby from danger.

Who Pays The Cost? An interesting problem is to be settled by the city at some time in the future regarding the building of sidewalks. Who shall build the approaches from the street crossing to the sidewalk proper? the city or the property owner, or the ward in which the sidewalk under dispute is located? The question arose in the case of a cement sidewalk which the First Methodist Episcopal church is now in the process of constructing.

Bridge in Disrepair: Among the city's dangerous bridges is that on South Main street near the Paul farm. It is not in such condition as to warrant closing it, but there is apprehension lest a heavy rain wash away the approaches. This contingency has been rendered the more likely by a dike which the Cement Post company has constructed to save their works from inundation at times of freshets, and which increases the water in the backwater.

Will Tell of City's Condition: City Health Officer E. D. Edden is preparing a report which he will present at the next meeting of the common council, in which he will tell of the sanitary condition of the city at the present time. The city doctors requested the report in order that they might be able to ascertain the amount of benefit which the municipality has derived from the garbage boxes which have already been installed. One of the aldermen delicately hinted that odors arose from certain of the alleys of the city, and that the garbage boxes were used to mark the spots where refuse should not be thrown.

James McVey Leaves City: James McVey, one of Janesville's young business men has left the city and will locate permanently in Lansing, Michigan. Mr. McVey was in the insurance business here and will continue the same work in Michigan as he will open an insurance office with James Crowley also a former Janesville man who resided here two years ago.

DOINGS OF THE SPIANS

After his appearance in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" Mr. Hodge will star in another company. Hodge's own play, "The Whittman," will be the medium of this plunge. When Lawrence McCarthy of the Boston theater was in New York a few days ago he arranged for the production of the piece at his playhouse in March.

The actor recently returned from England, where he arranged for the production of "The Whittman" after its Boston run. When London has had all it wants of it the play will come to New York and will tour America during the season of 1904-05.

"The Whittman" is of the type generally described as rural. The leading personage, to be acted by Hodge, is a veterinarian.

Stock companies are to be established this season in many cities which have not heretofore boasted of these permanent organizations, according to Walter S. Baldwin, who is to have three companies, one in New Orleans, a second in Buffalo and probably a third in Toronto, Canada.

"There is a demand for the permanent organizations," he said recently, "and there is nothing like giving the public what it wants."

Other cities to have stock companies are Rochester, N. Y., where a company at the Baker theater will be under the management of Owen Davis; Cleveland, where a German stock company is to be established, and Syracuse, N. Y. In Chicago there will be stock companies at the American theater, the "old" Garrick, the Players' theater, Bush Temple, and the Thirty-first Street theater.

Nashville, Tenn., is to have two companies, and G. Walter Edwards is now in New York engaging players for them. Memphis, Tenn., is also to have a company, probably under the same management as that in Nashville.

Harry Glazier will be leading man at the Empire theater, Toledo, and the following persons have been engaged for his support: Paul F. Anderson, Albert Davis, Clara Knott, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Meara. This company will play a season of fifty weeks.

At the Castle Square theater, Boston, there will be an almost entirely new organization, with the exception of Lilian Lawrence, the leading woman. W. C. Mason has been engaged to stage all the productions.

Ottawa, Canada, is also to have a stock company, and it is likely that in the new house A. J. Small is opening in Quebec a new company will be engaged for a run of several weeks. Philadelphia will have at least five companies, one each at Forepaugh's, the Girard Avenue and the Standard, the Radcliffe company and one at the Grand Opera House.

WILL T. HODGE

Secretary McIntyre of the Actors' society says, "We are placing more actors with stock organizations than for several seasons."

AUTOMOBILE TOPICS.

A New Motor Club in St. Paul—Sahara Autos.

The St. Paul Automobile club has been organized in St. Paul, Minn., with fifty members, including some of the best known business men of the city, and officers have been elected as follows: President, Paul Gottzian; vice president, R. C. Wright; secretary, John Patterson; treasurer, Gustave Scholle.

Several women will join the club, as there are a number of women automobilists in the Minnesota capital. An automobile show is planned and the usual parades, club runs and race meets are to be held.

More serious objects of the club will be the protection of members from unsecured and oppressive legislation and the securing of more boulevards and of speedways where automobiles may be driven for pleasure and speed testing.

Advices have been received from Cairo, Egypt, to the effect that tourists in Egypt will soon be able to cross the Sahara desert in a four mile an hour automobile specially constructed for traveling over sandy wastes.

Among these are Rev. S. G. Huey, Department Commander J. P. Rundle, Dept. Chaplain E. Stanley Lathrop, and Capt. Pliny Norcross.

The Beloit drum corps will be on hand with soul-stirring music, Col. E. O. Kimberley, the national soldier singer, the Beloit Ladies' quartette, Comrade Harry Platter, banjoist and general entertainer, of Rockford, will furnish a number of patriotic vocal selections. All ex-soldiers of any war, Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, and the patriotic public are numbered in the invitation to be present and join in having a good and social time.

An invitation similar to the above has been sent out by the executive committee signed by W. J. McIntyre, secretary, and W. H. Grinnell, president.

Clinton Wants It

It is said Clinton will make a bid for the next encampment, and some think that the chances for the old soldiers to hold their next annual meeting in that city are good. The attendance this year, it is thought, will be very large. The total number of visitors in Beloit on the day of the meeting will probably be between two and three thousand and there will probably be nearly five hundred ex-soldiers and sailors present.

A large delegation expect to go from Janesville but the G. A. R. will not attend in a body, as in the past, because of the larger number who intend going at different times on the interurban. W. V. Morrison, who was a marine during the civil war will be one of the few sailors from this city to be present, there not being many old sailors in this part of Rock county.

Program Not Completed
The local section of the program arranged for the reunion is not complete as there will be other local talent in Beloit that will be called in to assist. Mrs. Marshall of that city will give readings and there will be others asked to help. A business meeting at the G. A. R. hall in the morning, gatherings, and campfires in the evening. The afternoon will be left open for general entertainment and visiting. Dinner is to be furnished by the Woman's Relief Corps of Beloit. The address of welcome will be given by L. E. Cunningham, president of the Beloit city council, and a response in behalf of the association by Captain Pliny Norcross of this city. Following this there will be music by the drum corps, singing by Col. Kimberley and the ladies' quartette will come between the other addresses.

REPORTORIAL GLEANINGS

Will Resume Meetings: The Janesville Lodge of Elks will hold its opening meeting the first Tuesday in October. Several applications for membership are in and preparations are being made for an interesting series of meetings this fall and winter.

Van Kirk Party in Italy: A postal card has been received which reads as follows: "Milan, Italy, August 21, 1903.—All well; beautiful October weather. Am having a fine trip. Expect to be home before October 1st. Regards to all. Respectfully, W. T. Van Kirk."

Will Be Here Some Days: Dr. R. S. Martin, the Red Cross evangelist who spoke at the Mary Kimball mission last evening, is to be here for some days to come, and will probably speak again several times. A number were attracted by his talk last evening, and were interested in his words.

Gave Street Parade: Diminutive ponies, curly dogs with hairy faces, wizened monkeys, and a tuneful band were among the distinctive features of the street parade given this noon by Beach and Bower's minstrels. They gave a performance this afternoon at the corner of Academy and Milwaukee streets, and will give another this evening.

New Plat Filed: The plat of a new addition comprising four blocks has been filed with the register of deeds of Rock county. The subdivision will be known as the John and Hugh McGrath addition and is made up of land between Portland and Roosevelt avenues and between Town Line avenue and McKinley avenue.

To Me, Chants, Manufacturers and Business Men of the City of Janesville.

The undersigned trade unions and labor organizations hereby respectfully request the merchants, manufacturers and business men to close their places of business on the legal holiday known as Labor day, which is the 7th day of September, 1903, that all laboring men and women may be permitted to enjoy the day set apart to them by the laws of the state of Wisconsin. ## GIVEN LENGTHY PERIODS IN JAIL

Judge Fifield had a busy session in municipal court this morning and meted out punishment to three offenders against the peace and happiness of Janesville. Walter Conroy was given twenty days in the jail for vagrancy. John Mosher, an old offender, was given forty for being drunk and disorderly. William Lemke was given his choice of a fine of $4 and costs or ten days in jail. He accepted the latter alternative.

LECTURE COURSE IS FIXED UPON

Y. M. C. A. HAS COMPLETED ITS LIST.

SEVERAL GOOD ATTRACTIONS

Gymnasium Work to Begin Late This Month at Association Building—Other Notes.

Secretary J. C. Kline of the Y. M. C. A. returned this morning from a trip to Chicago on association business relating to the railroad men. He said this morning that the preliminary gymnasium work would commence about the twenty-fifth of this month, the regular graded classes commencing their winter's training October 1.

Lecture Course Arranged
The association has closed with a lecture bureau of Chicago for a course of seven entertainments. The opening one will be given about the middle of October. The dates have not been definitely arranged. The Star Concert company will be the first attraction.

Old Favorite to Return

The humorous philosopher, Lou J. Beauchamp, who delighted the patrons last year has been booked for a return date and will probably speak on "The Mistakes and Blunders of Humanity." Other attractions arranged for are: Ashley W. Clark, the noted detective; the Asctean Trio; G. A. Gearheart; the Empire Entertainment Co.; and the Royal Entertainers.

New Departments

Although definite announcements cannot be made at this time, it is practically decided that several new departments in connection with the association work will be instituted this fall. There will be at least two new men to take charge of these, besides the new gymnasium instructor. The selection for the latter appointment will be announced in a few days.

CONSUL TO CUBA UNDER MCKINLEY

Dr. R. S. Martin, Who is Healer of Bodies and Souls, Received Government Appointment.

"I am both an ordained minister and a doctor of medicine," said Dr. R. S. Martin, when questioned regarding his title this morning. "At present I am representing one of the book companies but outside of my regular employment I am doing what I can in the Red Cross evangelistic work. I was asked last night to speak at the Mary Kimball mission and will occupy the pulpit of the Court Street Methodist church Sunday morning, and that of the First Methodist church Sunday evening. I will also speak at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon."

Sent to Cuba by McKinley

"My talk last night was a general discussion of conditions in Cuba. I was sent to the island as consul by President McKinley just before the war with Spain. I had scarcely landed when war was declared and my papers not having been presented to and ratified by the Spanish government, I never served in my official capacity."

Conditions in Cuba

"I remained on the island, however, and did Red Cross army work until the close of the war. My ability to speak the Cuban dialect was of considerable advantage. I was an eye-witness of sixteen or more battles, though you must understand that many of these were little more than skirmishes. Gen. Wood did great things for Cuba and the Cubans have not discarded the sanitary innovations he introduced. Minister Quesada of Cuba was quite right in correcting the health report to the United States government a few days ago. Health conditions there are excellent."

Red Cross Work

"The Red Cross movement I am identified with has no connection with the Red Cross army work. It is simply a union evangelistic movement of members of all churches."

BARTENDERS ARE SUSPICIOUS

Union Fears They May Be Out a Few Dollars by Defalcation.

Members of the bartenders' union will meet next Tuesday and it is probable that at that time they will elect a new officer, to take the place of one of their officers who has left the city, whether to return or not they do not know.

That is the question that is worrying them. At the time of leaving he had some money belonging to the union in his possession, and they fear that he may not intend to return. He was not placed under bond, an omission which will probably not occur with the new officer.

WANTED TO MAIL SOME LETTERS

Elderly Woman Confused Fire and Postoffice Boxes Yesterday Afternoon.

In an endeavor to mail some letters yesterday afternoon an elderly lady living near the corner of Milton and St. Mary's avenues sent in the alarm 222, which called the department to the spot. This fact was learned by Chief Klein this morning. The cause of the alarm was rumored late yesterday afternoon, when a little girl told that she saw the person in question at the box with the letters in her hand. A telephone message this morning confirmed the story. Late there has been considerable trouble caused by some unknown persons breaking the glass and tampering with the key in this box and it is known that some parties had been fooling with the frame which incloses the key just previous to the time the alarm was sent in so it is believed that the glass was broken, therefore the key could easily have been taken to unlock the box. The department has been caused much annoyance by having to replace the glass in this key frame every week or so.

FAIL WITH SUGAR BEETS

Crop Could Not Be Raised at Corliss Because of Rains.

Racine, Wis., Sept. 3.—The Menominee Falls Beet Sugar company's attempt to raise a crop of sugar beets at Corliss in this county, has proven a dismal failure. The company has already lost in the neighborhood of about $2000. About 510 acres were leased at $5 per acre and 300 acres of this were well covered with weeds, making that a total loss. This has been because of the rains during the past several months and inability to secure labor to clear the fields and to take care of the plants. The lease was only taken for one year and it is not expected that the land will be leased again.

Solstone, the speedy horse owned by George Paris, of this city, took first money in the three-minute class race at the Dane county fair at Madison yesterday afternoon. The horse won three straight heats. The best time was 2:22 1/4.

REST ROOM IDEA IS NOT OFF YET

PROJECT IS STILL ALIVE, THOUGH SLEEPING.

NO SUITABLE SITE YET FOUND

Committee Blocked by Failure to Find Location at Reasonable Expense.

"The project to secure a rest room for the wives and children of farmers stopping in Janesville has not been abandoned by any means," said Rev. R. C. Denison when questioned concerning the matter.

"Any decision as to location had to be postponed until the committee appointed to investigate the feasibility of establishing a market-place in Janesville should report. Because, of course, the room would have to be in proximity to the market-place, if the latter was secured."

No Market-Place

The members of the committee referred to were Messrs. Bingham, Cunningham and Wortendyke. They found that no suitable site could be secured for a reasonable price and so far as they were concerned the whole matter was dropped.

The Twilight Club

Rev. Denison has been very busy since returning from his trip abroad. He has charge of the arrangements for the Twilight club meetings, the first of which will be held early in October and will also deliver an address at the state convention of the Congregational church which is to be held in Menominee the first week of next month. As soon as possible he intends to see those who are interested in the matter and take up the rest room project again. The ladies of the city have a fund which was raised for the purpose.

Lou Dillon's Speed

New Trotting Champion May Put Record Still Lower What Sanders Says.

The light harness horse world is now talking about the possibility of the new world's champion trotter, Lou Dillon, 2:00, going the distance in 1:50 or better. Experts agree that she has more speed "up her sleeve," and her owner, C. G. K. Billings, formerly of Chicago, is confident that she will do better than 2 minutes flat, possibly going the mile in 1:55.

Mr. Billings says: "I'm glad I decided to let my horse have a chance at the Broadway track. It was very fast. I think Lou Dillon can go below 2 minutes."

Millard Sanders, driver and trainer of Lou Dillon, says: "The two minute trotter has appeared, but I firmly believe that Lou Dillon is able to lower the mark still lower, to 1:50 or 1:55. There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that Lou Dillon has every trotting record at her mercy from one to two miles. She has lasting endurance and is easily the stoutest hearted horse the world has ever seen. She is unusually reliable and in all her career has never disappointed me. In fact, she has bettered her marks more than any rational man could expect.

"To demonstrate that she has not nearly reached her limit you have only to study the fractions of today's mile. She did the last quarter in 29, and the last eighth in 14 seconds, which in itself is one of the most marvelous exhibitions ever given by a trotting horse. The majority of fast horses practically stagger across the line, while Lou Dillon finished at a 1:52 gait. She wanted more, and took me a quarter of a mile to pull her up. No sooner was she unharnessed than she began prancing around like a horse that had just gone a 2:40 mile instead of doing a record making mile in 2:00.

"Many horses cannot go farther than

In the Golf World

The Invading Team of English Players and Its Successful Tour: Coming Women's National Tourney to Be Held at Wheaton, Ill.

The team of English golfers now visiting the United States has shown us that the average British player is superior to the average American exponent of the game. While we may be able to build faster yachts than the Britishers, they certainly can play a stronger game of golf.

The team is composed of men from Oxford and Cambridge universities and is made up as follows: Oxford—T. Mansfield Hunter, A. J. T. Bramston, H. G. B. Ellis, G. B. Barne, C. H. Allison, H. W. Beveridge and C. N. Day.

Cambridge—John L. Low, captain; Norman F. Hunter, P. W. Leathart and D. F. Ransom.

Four of the visitors—J. L. Low, H. W. Beveridge and the Hunter boys—are Scotchmen and the other seven are Englishmen.

Johnnie Low, the captain of the team, is a fine, easy going, genial chap, whom all the visitors swear by. He is a member of the St. Andrews club. Mr. Low won the Calcutta cup in 1892, the Jubilee vase in 1897 and the Glen-courses as far as we have gone. Myopia is just the same as some of our best courses at home, and we have heard that the Wheaton course is even better than any we have yet played over."

Beveridge, Ransom, Allison and Barne are the tallest members of the squad, and they all hit a tremendous ball. The shortest member, Leathart, is as tall as J. W. Taylor.

The big men are powerful hitters, albeit a bit slow. H. G. B. Ellis, who seems to be the most observant of the visitors, gets a long ball with a short swing back and a quiet but exhaustive finish.

It is really a pleasure to watch the visitors play, their execution being the apotheosis of golfing finesse.

The clean hitting of the Britishers and their marvelous putting impress an onlooker. They waste no time in addressing the ball or getting lines on the green, but just send the ball along about its business.

The visitors have been the object of much interest, and quite a gallery follows the men as they play in four-somes, three ball and single matches. Their "hit or miss" style of play, practically without studying a stroke, is something new to the usual dwelling before shots in which most American golfers indulge, but the visitors get the distance just the same. C. H. Allison, who is just twenty-one years old and an undergraduate of Oxford, is the only player of the eleven who appears to study his shots. Before putting, particularly, he usually deliberates for a few shots. Allison is decidedly steady in his work throughout.

H. G. B. Ellis has one of the most finished swings of the British team. He is strong and powerful and gets a long ball. His work on the green is marked by the same apparent carelessness that characterizes the play of most of his team mates.

The Englishmen have played on many courses, and thus far have been uniformly successful. At Boston and Chicago they won decisive victories, and several important matches remain for them to play. They were in New York during the America's cup races and were guests of the New York Yacht club on board the club steamer during the contests between Reliance and Shamrock III.

There is a strong likelihood that the United States Golf association will put up an international cup to be competed for by the visitors. President Windeler is in favor of the scheme, which originated in Chicago. The cup, if offered, will be played for every year on the course designated by the holders of the trophy.

The women's national tourney is scheduled to take place at Wheaton, Ill., during the last week of September. All the leading players of the feminine world are to be on hand, and one of the spectators will be Miss Rhona Adair, women's champion of Great Britain.

Miss Bessie Anthony of Glenview, near Chicago, and champion woman player of the Western Golf association, is one of the favorites for the event, as also is Mrs. E. A. Manice, the eastern woman who has been prominent in women's tourneys for several years. Mrs. Stout, formerly Miss Genevieve Hecker, who has held the championship title for two years, is confident of again winning the title and, having defeated Mrs. Manice, Miss Anthony and the other leaders in the past, is certain that she can repeat her triumphs.

As the coming tournament is to be held in the territory of the Western Golf association many players who have never yet appeared in a national contest will compete. By removing this meeting from the east to the west the U. S. G. A. acted wisely and in a manner that will serve to arouse interest in the game in localities where but little attention has formerly been awarded it.

Trotting Snap Shots. Prince of Orange, 2:07 1/2, seems to hold the 2:08 trot safe.

Ben Renick has his two gray trotters, Texas and Re-wood, in line form at present. Both look due to do something.

"Long Shot" Cox has succeeded Fred Hyde as driver of Audubon Day, 2:03 1/2; Walnut, 2:10 1/4, and the other horses in the Capital City stable.

W. J. Andrews has Promise, 2:12 1/4, in grand form. He was at Billy Buck's necktie in 2:07 1/4.

FARM MISCELLANY

Value of Soft Feed.

From Farmers' Review: My experience in feeding both mash and cooked feed to fowls and chicks is that it is the best morning feed one can give. I have obtained better results from feeding mash once a day than by feeding all hard grain. My hens lay more eggs, the eggs are more fertile and my fowls are healthier when I feed a mash once a day. I think it necessary because it furnishes variety, is economical and allows one to utilize feed that would otherwise be wasted, and it is beneficial because it permits one to mix certain ingredients that will keep your fowls healthy. My experience has been that the right kind of a condition powder is of as much benefit to poultry as it is to horses or cattle or as a blood purifier or a tonic is to people. Powdered sulphur and linseed meal is given at the proper time and is one of the best muscle and bone forming feeds. Feeds of this kind should be fed in the mash for best results. I was born and raised on a farm and have always had poultry, and my fowls have free range now. I take full charge of all of them. When I feed hard grain in the morning the fowls in summer will hunt a shady place and sit around for a couple of hours and in winter some of them will even go back on the roost, but when I feed mash they don't seem to be satisfied and so have to scratch around for more. I find the mash to be the best morning feed because it is very nourishing and digests much quicker than hard grain or any other feed. I have obtained better results from this method than any other and have never had any disease among my fowls.—David O. Bootz, Peoria County, Illinois.

Where the Grange Thrives.

A report made by Bro. J. H. Sattling of Manchester Orange No. 501, Ontario County, N. Y., to the Ohio Farmer states that the county named boasts of 16 granges, the largest having 117 members. The total grange membership is 821. Relative to meetings he says:

"Current topics are discussed; bills before the state legislature and congress are often read and discussed; resolutions are drawn up and signed and sent to our representatives and are often effective. Thus we influence for the good of all.

"Exchange of seed and stock often occurs at meetings; methods of producing the best crops are asked for and freely given. Music, instrumental and vocal, enlivens the young and elderly as well. Quotations of famous authors are often rendered in response to roll call; histories of first settlers of each town are often given in condensed form. County Pomona granges are attended by delegates who are expected to report the most interesting parts of these meetings.

"The Patrons' Fire Relief Association saves thousands of dollars to members. Usually the cost is about half that in stock companies. The grange in this section is a success in every respect."

Reducing Water in Butter. In order to decrease the water content where it is necessary, the following rules should be observed, says a Swedish buttermaker.

Churn at a low temperature, wash the butter thoroughly and drain well. Add the salt before the working is commenced. After the salt has been added, do not work the butter more until after it has become hard, preferably the next morning, but then thoroughly and not in too large pieces. Place the butter in an ice box or refrigerator after the first working, and not in water. At all times in making and working the butter the quality must, of course, be considered in the first place and the water content only in the second. High water per cent is no hindrance for high quality but must not be gained at the expense of the quality. As one of the requirements for high water percentage is that the butter is to be worked while it is still soft, the butter after it is packed in tubs must necessarily be kept at a low temperature. If there are no effective means for cooling the butter at hand, a method of working must be employed, which, at the expense of the water content, gives the least grain to the butter.

Why Buttermakers Quit.

It is a fact, I think, that buttermakers leave the business after a shorter period of service than men do in other lines of business, for we see very few old buttermakers. Is it not that the daily grind gets monotonous, and the risk of one's health in the too often unsanitary conditions that surround the creameries forces itself on the buttermaker's attention and reminds him that he can stand but a few years of such labor? He reflects on the early rising, and the long days he has to put in in order that everything shall be ready for the next day's run, and the uncertainty that he should be so fortunate as to remain in one place for any length of time, and that when the time does come when he will be unable to get around with his old time vigor that his employer will be casting around to find another man for the place, forgetful of the responsibilities which have been so manfully borne, and the fact that through him alone was the success of the business possible.—J. B. Moore

THE OTHER MAN

By FREDERIC REDDALE

Copyright, 1902, by J. P. Lippincott Company.

"On this, possibly their last day together, Kane realized as he had never done before how inexpressibly indispensable she had become to him, and yet in that very fact he found strength for the coming ordeal, for with his customary quick decision he meant to get it over."

"You will probably find Sir Arthur and Rick in the library," she said, as they entered the hall at Denecroft, as yet unlighted save by the fitful blaze of a log fire.

"Will you join us there?" inquired Kane, solicitously, as he detained her by the hand.

"Certainly, if you wish it," she returned.

"I do wish it," was the reply. "I have something to say which I want you all to hear."

A new note in his voice arrested her attention, and she looked up at him in quick surprise. He drew her, all wrapped and bonneted as she was, into a little recess, and took her in his arms; imprinting on her lips a warm and passionate kiss.

"It may be for the last time, dearest," he whispered, "but do not judge me too harshly when you hear all."

"What is it?" she asked tremulously, her eyes large and luminous with tender interest and alarm. For answer he said:

"In a little while you will know," and led her to the foot of the stairs. Slowly she ascended as though oppressed by the weight of an impending disaster; at the turn she stopped and looked back at him where he stood watching her with passionate adoration, all his soul in his eyes. Then he turned his steps towards the library.

"Hullo, Kane!" exclaimed Richard, heartily, rising and flinging a book to the other end of the leather lounge on which he had been dozing. "Come in, man! You're just in time to keep us awake."

The baronet's greeting, if less "o-ciferous," was none the less pleasant.

"Where's Stella?" inquired Richard. "She will be here immediately," said Kane, and even as he spoke she entered the room.

"Ring for your candles, will you, sis?" exclaimed Richard. "It gets dark so confoundingly early here."

Stella moved towards the bell, but Kane stayed her with a gesture.

"Not just yet, please, if I may interfere," he said. "I have something to tell you all—something that is not easy for me to say—and I think I can get along better by the fire-light."

There was a lifeless quality in his voice, and his usually virile tones were curiously muffled. Richard Dyart was as far from divining what was actually coming as either of the other listeners, yet he was conscious of a quickening thrill of expectancy, roused by Kane's words and manner, and he glanced at him keenly.

"One moment, Kane," he said; "am I concerned in the story?"

"You are!" was the answer, at which Richard drew a deep breath and settled back in his seat.

Stella moved to a place in the recess by the fireplace, where there was deep shadow; Sir Arthur and Richard sat on either side the blaze; Kane remained standing in the center, declining a proffered seat. All looked at him expectantly.

"Richard Dyart," he began in colorless tones, "nearly a year ago you were treacherously ambushed, shot and robbed on the banks of the Moot river. We all know the pitiful story; no need to go over it again. The man who robbed you was then a poor outcast, down on his luck, a very Ishmael, and it may be honestly asserted through no fault of his own. This man saw you, a perfect stranger, start on your prospecting trip into the Karroo country. He tracked you on horseback from day to day, camping within sight of your fire every night, sharing your hardships, starving when you went hungry, freezing through the long, dark nights because he dared not kindle a blaze which might have apprised you that you were watched. At first his only thought was to claim shares in whatever you might find. But when, ambushed in the tall grass, he saw you gather untold wealth, the demon of avarice took possession of him, and he determined to have the treasure, even if it came to the taking of life. You were nothing to him then; he simply saw in you one of an army of adventurers, many of whom would have served him the same way. He left you for dead, fled with his spoil to the coast, and thought that his secret was buried in the desert. He was rich, and he became richer; from that hour everything he touched turned to gold. But he had miscalculated the power of conscience, of remorse and—of love. Sir Arthur and Miss Dyart, I am the man who shot and robbed your brother!"

He ceased speaking and turned away. There was silence in the room, save for the dull snapping and flicker of the fire, while from the darkness came a woman's sobs, answered by a deep groan of anguish from the bowed form of the man who had just signed his own death-warrant.

The two men, Sir Arthur and Richard, sat looking at Kane in dumb amazement. The form was the first to find his tongue, although usually the more unready of the brothers.

"This is a most extraordinary—ar—" presume you are aware of the full import of what you have told us—and—er—of the consequences," this last significantly.

The culprit bowed. "Kane, old man," said Richard, "I'm unforgotten sorry! I'd rather it had been any man but you. I won't say but what, since we saw old Pilsh yesterday, I've had certain misgivings, but I was unprepared for this."

"There was—there is—there can be no palliation or excuse," said Kane, lifting his head. "The guilty knowledge became more than I could carry after all your kindness and—"

The sentence was unfinished, for his voice broke.

"I presume you realize that this ends everything, Mr. Kane," said Sir Arthur, with a wave of the hand to where Stella was sitting sobbing softly.

"God help me, I do!" was the reply wrung from the anguished spirit, "but my punishment is greater than I can bear!" and with these words he left the room, and the clang of the heavy outer door announced his departure to those within.

Stella broke down utterly then, and would not be comforted.

"Send for Marcella!" she wailed, and, knowing nothing else to do, Rick set out across the park to beseech her to come to the motherless girl in her extremity.

"It is too dreadful, too horrible!" said Marcella, as they drove back after she had been made acquainted with Kane's confession. "Suppose he had killed you, as he meant to do, the wretch!" she panted. "I'll never forgive him—never!"

"Oh, I don't know," said Richard coolly. "He came mighty near it, but he just missed it, you see. If I'd caught him red-handed, or even three months ago, I expect I'd have been pretty hard on him too; but now, you see, it's different."

"I don't see," said Marcella vindictively.

"Wait till you meet Stella," said Rick significantly.

"She ought to hate him, too!" insisted Marcella.

"Well, I fancy she won't," was the quiet reply, arguing that Master Rick possessed rather more insight into the workings of the feminine mind than might have been expected.

Curiously enough, much of his own hot anger and indignation had left him, and he found himself looking at the matter from the position of an outsider or an onlooker. No doubt Stella would readily enough admit the enormity of Kane's offense, but Rick could see how it might appear to her as a mere episode in a daring and adventurous man's career. Then, too, the beggar had made a clean breast of it! However, Stella kept her room all the next day, and so no one knew what her feelings were.

An Educational Item for Cloak and Suit Buyers

THE first information you desire is, what is the correct style? All the leading cloak manufacturers and all the leading cloak journals unite in saying that the two piece suits with fitted or semi fitted long skirted coats stand at the head of the list. The fabrics for these suits are English Tweed Effects, Fancy Mixtures and plain Venetians and Cheviots. The Louis XIV sleeve is the proper sleeve. Walking skirts are seven and nine gore with a prominent flare. The dressier skirts tend to soften and finer material in Black and Navy.

In heavier coats for outside wear, the semi-fitted and full fitted effects prevail with a strong tendency to Military capes. Blacks are particularly strong, while many Castors are being shown. The lighter tans are not considered good.

For Misses the smart short coat is most prominent, while for children from six to twelve years the long garments of Zibiline and Kersy take the lead.

We are now prepared for the Fall and Winter season, with over six hundred new garments. We have given the selection of these garments our most careful attention. We have gone right to the root of the suit and cloak business and the styles we show and the prices we make on the newest and best styles are the lowest cash prices.

GLASS PLANTS ARE TO RESUME

Two More Will Start Without Reference to Wage Scale.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 3.—Following closely on the start of the big window-glass plant at Kane, Pa., comes the report that the Getman Glass company at Cleveland, N. Y., and the Vincennes Window Glass company at Vincennes, Ind., each of a twenty-four-pot capacity, will be put in operation without wage scales or the recognition of either of the workers' organizations. Both are co-operative concerns and last season sold the entire production to the Pittsburg Plate Glass company. It is understood that the contract has been renewed for the coming season. It is now said the independent concerns will have no difficulty in getting a sufficient force of skilled workmen to run the factories on account of dissatisfaction over the Detroit agreement.
